

Dismissal Was 'Carefully Considered'

So Testifies Sec.
Marshall on the Fourth Day to
The Committee

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP) Secretary Marshall brushed aside today a suggestion that Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway had made statements of the kind that led to firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. He said they were not "parallel."

For the fourth day, Marshall was in the witness chair before the Senate armed services and foreign relations committees. They are inquiring into General MacArthur's dismissal and the Korean war policy differences behind it.

At the outset of today's session, Senator H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) quoted a two-month-old statement by Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway which said "it would be a tremendous victory for the United Nations if the war ended with our forces in control up to the 38th Parallel."

Smith asked if that wasn't the very kind of statement MacArthur had been criticized for making without first clearing it with the Pentagon.

Marshall replied: "I don't think that there is a sufficient of a parallel there, Senator. We have for example had no general public discussions regarding the 38th Parallel so far as the commanders in the field and the government here in Washington (are concerned)."

"There Ridgway was saying something to the encouragement of his forces."

Carefully Considered

In response to other questions from Smith, Marshall said the administration "very carefully considered" the effect on the Japanese people before removing MacArthur as occupation chief.

Smith had asked whether the man who ousted MacArthur took into account "the inevitable adverse relations with Japan at this critical moment."

Marshall said it was generally recognized that MacArthur's prestige with the Japanese people "was not to be belittled or tampered with in a short time, by any other individual."

He went on to say, however, that if MacArthur had been allowed to remain as occupation chief, while losing his post as United Nations commander in the Korean war, the result would have been "divided authority which might open up many confusions."

Smith had suggested MacArthur was unnecessarily humiliated, by being removed from his Japanese command, even if the administration felt it necessary to replace him as commander in Korea.

Smith also asked whether the administration considered, in deciding to dismiss MacArthur, the possible effect on the pending peace treaty with Japan.

Dulles Not Consulted

And he wanted to know whether John Foster Dulles was consulted in advance of the firing. Dulles is a Republican adviser to Secretary of State Acheson and has been handling preliminary negotiations regarding the Japanese treaty.

Marshall said Dulles was not consulted. He reiterated that President Truman formally consulted with him (Marshall), Secretary Acheson, Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and W. Averell Harriman, special adviser to the president.

"I do know that the president did speak to three or four others," Marshall said. "I am quite certain Mr. Dulles was not among those four, but I cannot be positive."

In a long series of questions, Smith dug into the formulation of American policy toward China and the men who had a hand in framing it.

Some of the high spots.

1. Smith said he had a letter from a "pretty good authority," saying that MacArthur proposed, shortly after the 1945 victory over Japan, a forced settlement of the war between Chinese Nationalists and Communists. He said the proposal was that the Communists should lay down their arms, in return for assurance of the right to participate in elections — if the Communists did not agree — to surround and disarm them. Marshall said he had no recollection of such MacArthur reports.

2. Smith suggested that Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, who made a 1947 report, long suppressed, favoring aid to the Chinese Nationalists was given a west coast command in September, 1949, to get him out of Washington. Smith said Wedemeyer's appointment to command the Sixth Army in California "looked like a promotion but really took him away from any further consideration" of Chinese policies.

No Foundation To Report Acheson to Quit

Truman Refutes
Report O'Dwyer
To Be Recalled

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—President Truman said today there is no foundation in fact to reports that Secretary of State Acheson may leave office within a few months.

Mr. Truman also told a news conference:

Reports he will recall William O'Dwyer as ambassador to Mexico likewise are rumors, with no foundation in fact.

He is backing completely President Administrator Michael DiSalle's meat price control order.

DiSalle's order has brought a flood of protests from packers and others.

Commenting on the protests, Mr. Truman said it was the same old fight. He added: When you tread on somebody's toes, he's going to scream.

He said the order was put up to him in advance and he approved it.

The question of Acheson's future in the administration was raised by a reporter who told Mr. Truman there had been reports Acheson was getting out within two weeks, two months and a few months.

The President said that was a rumor that had no foundation in fact.

Mr. Truman's attention was called then to published stories that former New York mayor O'Dwyer would be recalled from Mexico City as the aftermath of the Senate crime investigating committee's report and the later conviction of James Moran for perjury.

Moran was a close friend of O'Dwyer when the present ambassador was mayor.

The crime committee's report was highly critical of O'Dwyer, saying he had failed to combat crime vigorously while mayor.

Mr. Truman then said the stories O'Dwyer would be recalled were also a rumor that has no foundation in fact.

Paul Benson in Kiwanis Talk

Paul Benson, member of the executive committee of the National Rural Letter Carriers' Association, spoke before the meeting of the Sedalia Kiwanis club in Bothwell Hall Thursday noon on "Our National Capital, As I Know It."

Mr. Benson, a frequent visitor in the national capital, told intimately of the places of interest there.

Ray Jiedel was program chairman.

Walter Kennedy, vice-president, presided in the absence of President T. H. Yount, and announced there would be a board of directors meeting at 7:45 p. m. tonight in the home of Herbert Schrankler.

Next week Kiwanis instead of meeting Tuesday will have a joint session with the Optimist club Tuesday noon in order to allow the Missouri Academy of General Practice use of the Hotel dining room during their convention here.

Guests today were Dave Keller, Warrensburg, with H. L. Pack; and the Rev. Mr. Edward R. Sims, new rector of Calvary Episcopal church, formerly secretary of the Kiwanis club in Harrisonville.

Haul Off Safe From Hi-way Theatre Today

About $450 Taken From Drive-In The Manager States

Thieves carried off a 250-pound safe from the 50 Hi-way Drive-In theatre at highway 50 and Gasoline Alley junction sometime early today. The safe was reported to have contained approximately $450 according to Ed Kirk, manager of the theatre.

The thieves drove their car onto the driveway leading past the box office and the office of Mr. Kirk. The car was parked close to the building and the thieves made a quick job of entering the building. A window near the door to the building was pried open enough for the thief to reach in and turn the night latch on the door so it could be opened.

The safe was loaded in the car and taken away.

Nothing else in the office appeared to have been disturbed by the thieves.

Sheriff John E. Taylor and Trooper Pete Stohr of the State Highway Patrol were notified and they went to the scene and are conducting an investigation.

"Lifts" of fingerprints were taken and other evidence obtained by the officers.

A description of the car which was seen in the driveway early today was obtained by the officers which is also being checked.

Mr. Kirk said insurance is carried which he believes will cover the loss.

Light Vote on The School Levy

Sedalia voters are not turning out in large numbers to vote in the School Tax levy election being held today. The vote up to shortly afternoon today was estimated at little more than 1,200, considered extremely light for any type of election in Sedalia.

Observers say that the early voters were mostly older citizens of the city while many of the young parents have not arrived at the poles up to mid-afternoon.

Sedalias are voting on a 75-cent tax levy on the $100 valuation in excess to the present levy which is $1.25. The purpose of the additional tax money is to make it possible to pay better salaries to teachers in the public schools of Sedalia and to be in a position to teachers in the public schools of the grade and high schools.

Chinese Wilt in Supplies' Lack

By Nate Polowetzky

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, May 10—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Edward M. Almond, commander of the U. S. 10th Corps, said today the Chinese armies in Korea are "withering on the vine" for lack of supplies.

"It's a marvel to me how the Chinese can support the massed army they have in Korea," he said in an interview.

"Where any army operates in foreign territory it must have the granaries. By tradition the Chinese fought from one rice bowl to another. We have denied them the granaries. The Chinese now are operating in a barren part of Korea, a long way from their bases. I just don't see how they can feed the masses they have to feed."

Almond said American artillery and air have been systematically destroying whatever stocks of food, ammunition and other supplies the enemy has stored up.

He warned that the enemy probably was preparing for another attack, and added:

"If they want to keep on coming, we are prepared for them."

He said the current lull is a Communist maneuver to withdraw from artillery range.

Friday Knife and Fork Guest Night

Sedalia Knife and Fork club members are looking forward to one of the outstanding programs of the year when they meet in Bothwell hotel at 6:30 p. m. Friday night.

Over 110 reservations have been made for this guest night program according to O. W. Wiley. The speaker will be Jack Schultz, a young man who has a fascinating adventure story to tell of his voyage alone in a dugout canoe, six thousand miles down the Amazon river and across the Caribbean. The story of his perilous trip he tells in "Sea Fever."

Claim Slash Will Cripple Program

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—Rep. Paul C. Jones (D-Mo) said today the $550,000 slash voted by the House recently in construction funds for Southwestern Power Administration would greatly cripple the REA program, especially in southeastern Missouri.

The appropriation bill carrying the funds for SPA for the year starting July 1 now is under consideration by the Senate appropriations committee.

"While I do not believe that the federal government is justified in advancing funds for the construction of duplicating or parallel lines which compete with private power companies," Jones said, "I do believe there is every justification and a definite need for the government to advance the money for the construction of lines which will deliver power from federally-owned and operated multi-purpose dams to preferred customers, including REA co-ops and municipal power plants."

A power shortage in southeastern Missouri has prevented local REA cooperatives from meeting the demand for electricity, Jones said in a weekly news letter to his constituents.

"I do not believe that the federal government is justified in advancing funds for the construction of duplicating or parallel lines which compete with private power companies," Jones said, "I do believe there is every justification and a definite need for the government to advance the money for the construction of lines which will deliver power from federally-owned and operated multi-purpose dams to preferred customers, including REA co-ops and municipal power plants."

Mr. Truman had only one other comment on the Korean situation. A woman reporter wanted to know how it would be possible to unify Korea if the Chinese Reds are not driven out.

Mr. Truman told her if she could answer that question, she would be a genius.

Confident to Win Without The Sacrifice of Unity

NEW ORLEANS, May 10—(AP)—Warren R. Austin, chief United States delegate to the United Nations, expressed confidence today that the U. N. can win the Korean war without sacrificing the unity of the free world.

Austin did not mention Gen. Douglas MacArthur by name, but his statement apparently was aimed at MacArthur's declaration that the United States would carry the fight to Red China even if it means going it alone.

In a speech prepared for delivery at Tulane university, where he was to be presented an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws, Austin declared that political and military considerations were so closely linked in the field of collective security that it was impossible to separate them.

The United States wanted the strength that comes with unity, Austin said. "We have it," he added, "we are determined to maintain it."

He cited the United Nations' victory in Greece as an example of how military and political considerations must be taken together. There, too, Communist troops had operated from a "privileged sanctuary," he said, but the U. N.'s unity of purpose forced the Communists to withdraw.

"No cease-fire arrangements were made," he said, "no truce agreements reached, no treaties signed. But, militarily and politically, Communist imperialism was defeated. Militarily and politically, the United Nations was victorious."

Austin said political forces are now at work in Communist China, which may well bring the same results.

"Even Communist masters," he said, "dare not continue indefinitely." (Please turn to page 8, Column 3)

Truth Word For Word, the President Says

He Made Comment
On Testimony by Secretary Marshall

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—President Truman today described Secretary Marshall's testimony on the MacArthur ouster as the exact truth, word for word.

Mr. Truman's statement to a news conference was in response to requests for comment on the Senate inquiry into Far Eastern policy and his firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur from the Far Eastern commands.

Mr. Truman said he is very well satisfied with Gen. Marshall's statement of the administration's position. And he added that Gen. Marshall told the exact truth, word for word.

Marshall, 70-year-old secretary of defense, has been the administration's lead off witness in reply to MacArthur. He has consistently recommended policy that there was no alternative except to relieve him of his commands.

Mr. Truman had only one other comment on the Korean situation. A woman reporter wanted to know how it would be possible to unify Korea if the Chinese Reds are not driven out.

Mr. Truman told her if she could answer that question, she would be a genius.

Clear by Committee

Under questioning, the president's patronage adviser testified that all appointments to the RFC board of directors were cleared first with the Democratic national committee.

Dawson denied that he had anything to do with what Senator Tobey (R-NH) described as a move by "the White House palace guard" to get Tobey to "lay off" Dawson in the examination.

Actually, Tobey was not too severe in his questioning, although he did open up the sore-spot subject of Mr. Truman's possible motives in quietly starting an investigation of his own last winter into congressional correspondence with the RFC.

Dawson insisted he did not interpret the president's inquiry as "a counterattack" on the subcommittee.

Tobey did not mention telephone conversations with Mr. Truman which he says he recorded without the president's knowledge. Tobey has told the Senate that in the phone talks Mr. Truman spoke of having "deduced" from the letters that "a great many" Congress members got fees in connection with RFC loans.

Told To Get Letters

Questioned by Tobey, Dawson said it was Mr. Truman himself who told him to get copies of the letters from RFC files, and that Mr. Truman personally undertook to explore them.

"There were no indications there was a counterattack," Dawson said.

He testified he never had heard — except what he read in the newspapers about Tobey's speech — that "the president deduced" a great many Senators got fees.

Dawson said he personally examined only about 20 of the letters and saw "nothing concerning a fee" in them.

He refused to say whether he saw anything that might be construed as "derogatory" to the work of the Senate, Dawson said.

Cigaret Price War At Springfield Ends

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 10—(AP)—Springfield's toughest cigarette price war in history came to a close today with everybody happy—especially the city's smokers.

The war broke out Tuesday morning between two of the city's leading downtown drugstores, Walgreen's and Evans. By early last night, both stores were offering fags for two packs for a penny—with a handful of matches thrown in to boot.

Eager Springfieldians were lined up for a block in front of each store last night to grab the bargain smokes, limited to two packs to a customer. But both firms gave in today and prices went back to normal.

Said one store official: "It's all over now but it may break out again any time."

Strong Denial By Dawson of Any Abuse

No Tampering in RFC Affairs He Tells Committee

WASHINGTON, May 10—(AP)—Presidential aide Donald S. Dawson denied senators' charges today that the White House had tried to "discredit" their investigation of alleged political influence on Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC) loans.

Dawson went before a Senate banking subcommittee and swore he never abused his White House post by tampering with RFC affairs as the group has charged.

In turn, he accused the subcommittee of having been unfair to him.

Under a raking cross examination by Senator Fulbright (D-Ark), who heads the group, Dawson denied that he had spread rumors about Fulbright and the committee, or that the White House had sought to "lay off" Congress members had taken improper fees to influence RFC loans.

Under questioning, the president's patronage adviser testified that all appointments to the RFC board of directors were cleared first with the Democratic national committee.

Dawson denied that he had anything to do with what Senator Tobey (R-NH) described as a move by "the White House palace guard" to get Tobey to "lay off" Dawson in the examination.

Observe Armed Forces Day

Sedalias are urged to observe Armed Forces Day Wednesday, May 16 in a proclamation by Mayor Herb Studer issued today in which he requested that citizens "mark the designated day by appropriate ceremonies and suitable observance: to display the flag of the United States at their homes and other appropriate places and to participate in exercises expressive of our recognition of the skill, gallantry and uncompromising devotion to duty characteristic of the armed forces in carrying out of their missions."

Open house will be held at the National Guard armory, Broadway and Ohio from 7:30 p. m. to 9:30 p. m., May 16 at which time there will be on display 105 millimeter howitzers, all trucks, radiotelephones and equipment, small arms weapons both carbine and rifle, a smoke board for artillery demonstration and many other things of interest.

Refreshments of doughnuts and coffee will be served.

Industries, businesses and professions and citizens are asked to pay tribute to the Missouri National Guard, the Organized Reserve and the armed forces currently, as a unified team, performing tasks vital to the security of the nation. This observance will also honor millions of veterans who have served their country in the past.

Allied Patrols Shatter Threat In Seoul Area

Power Failure
During Storm

Poplar trees whipping in the strong wind and rain, Wednesday night is attributed as cause for a 2400-volt primary line to weave together in the alley between Seventh and Broadway near Ocase, and burn in two. This resulted in a power failure from Broadway to Third on the west side of Ohio in the business district, for nearly three hours.

When this high voltage line oured, the power to that line was cut at the power plant at Broadway and Ingram and caused customers furnished by the line to be in a "black-out" period. The failure came at 8:45 and lasted until about 11:45.

William Rich, manager of the Missouri Public Service Co., in Sedalia, explained when the primary line went out it also caused a short in the secondary line. The high wind which whipped the poplar trees back and forth, became entangled with the wires and caused insulation to burn out, and whipped the wires so they came in contact and also burned.

Workmen, he explained, had to work with extreme caution in handling the wires as well as climbing the poles and trimming tree limbs away from the sputtering wires.

Mr. Rich explained several wires in southeast Sedalia were blown down but service was restored to this section without too much inconvenience to the customers.

Arias Hopes to Stay in Office

Remnants of this force Thursday stabbed into Munsan, 21 miles northwest of Seoul, after wiping out a Red threat to flank the old South Korean capital.

Tanks and South Korean infantrymen hunted through Munsan without opposition, then withdrew.

Elsewhere along the 100 mile front the greatest obstacles encountered by probing tank patrols were mine fields.

Chinese armies are "withering on the vine" because of lack of supplies, said Lt. Gen. Edward M. Almond, commander of the U. S. 10th Corps.

The Reds have withdrawn to keep out of range of U. N. artillery. Nevertheless, Almond cautioned, they presumably are preparing for another attack.

He said, "We are killing large quantities of the enemy and will kill them in the future."

Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, U. N. ground commander, emphasized the point. Van Fleet said his men are in excellent spirit, at the highest peak of determination, and "we are ready for the enemy now at any time in the future."

An Eighth Army spokesman said 6,000 North Korean Reds who had threatened to outflank Seoul were either killed or routed.

South Koreans were mopping up remnants of this force Thursday west of the Seoul-Munsan road. AP correspondent John Randolph said Reds, fighting a delaying action, were firing down on the highway ran into no opposition.

On a neighboring highway between Uijongbu and the 38th parallel, another armored force hit a small Chinese screening unit 19 miles north of Seoul.

Other armored forces roamed the central front, re-entered Chuncheon 45 miles northeast of Seoul, and clanked into Inje on the eastern front without opposition.

The Fifth Air Force reported it still was studying the results of Wednesday's raid on Sinuiju, air field by 312 U. N. planes but it was clear they inflicted "considerable damage."

Eight Marine planes were hit in the raid, the greatest air strike of the war. But not a single raiding pilot was scratched, the Air Force said.

American F-86 Sabre jets flew patrol over Sinuiju Thursday, within sight of Russian-type jets parked on an air field across the border in Manchuria. The Red planes remained safely on the ground.

Presumed Reds In Withdrawal Are Preparing to Launch Attack

TOKYO, Friday, May 11—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway said Thursday the United Nations battle in Korea may have started the defeat of Communism's efforts at world domination.

The U. N. commander's comment was contained in an answer to Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, allied field commander, congratulating Ridgway on his nomination to full general.

Ridgway said it is "quite possible" that because of the U. N. fight, "history will record that the crest of the Communist wave has been broken against your arms and... that the flood of this menace, reaching its high mark on your front, thereafter began its recession."

KILLER'S PACE

XXXXVI

SONYA SAREETA was the first to be brought in. A matron had given her dry, ill-fitting clothes, but on Sonya they looked good. Then Smiley Wellauer and Clara Mayhew came in. Clara looked as blondly attractive as ever but Smiley was the worse for wear.

As Wertheim was ushered in, he gave a double-take at Esplin and Brayton, but he eyed me with dead-pan indifference. Carl Prater, who entered a moment later, escorted by District Attorney Andy Tanner, froze at the sight of the two Valleyville morticians.

"I want my lawyer," he cried out. "Get me J. J. McNamara at once!"

Merica put through a call for McNamara and then the police official turned to Star. "You might as well get along with it while we're waiting for McNamara. Prater don't have to say anything till his lawyer gets here."

Star took the floor. "Here on the Inspector's desk, is an affidavit signed by Mr. Brayton and Mr. Esplin, who conduct Valleyville's leading funeral parlor. Prater's hermetically sealed vault firm has been making a considerable effort to sell them the Prater vault."

"The company has been successful with their product, making a profit for Mr. Prater, who obtained 49 per cent of the stock for his invention, and the late Barney Bidault, who supplied the capital in return for 51 per cent of the stock."

"Mr. Wertheim, the sales manager, rigged up a bizarre device for graphically demonstrating the principle of the hermetically sealed vault. Of course the idea is decades old. I've seen many demonstrations in store windows of miniature vaults submerged in water upon dolls. But Wertheim went one better by putting on a life-size show with a real vault. Miss Clara

Mayhew, the company receptionist, doubled as the doll. "When Mr. Brayton and Mr. Esplin came for a demonstration, they arrived so late that Miss Mayhew had been excused. Prater and Wertheim made the best of the situation and took their customers out to dinner at the La Jolla Club."

AL NANABARRO was a greenish white as Star went on. "Prater suggested that Frannie substitute for Clara as the doll in the vault and she said she'd make it to the offices between shows. Prater probably told her to bring the yellow bathing suit she happened to be wearing in one of her numbers. This she did, borrowing Al Nanabarro's car."

"The girl took her place and the vault was lowered into the water. Brayton and Esplin were favorably impressed when Wertheim suddenly became excited. Too late he reached for the lever causing the vault to rise. When it was at last lifted, the doll was wet, instead of dry as it had been in the past. In short, Frannie Martin had drowned."

The gazes of Sonya and Nanabarro turned to Carl Prater, who breathed heavily. Wertheim then broke.

"It wasn't my fault!" he screamed. "It was Prater's! The metal was cracked when it was stamped out."

Al Nanabarro reached Prater before anybody could stop him. Merica and Nanabarro's own lieutenant, Lou Brisso, pulled him off. The night club man continued to stare across the room at Prater with hatred.

"When the horrible accident was discovered," Star went on, "all present were frantic. Mr. Brayton and Mr. Esplin saw ruin if publicity about this episode reached their home town, as it inevitably would if something drastic were not done. Mr. Prater and Mr. Wertheim also saw ruin.

"It was Mr. Wertheim who came up with what seemed a brilliant suggestion. No one else, he assured the others, knew of Miss Martin's visit to the Prater offices. Why not drive her car to some spot along the river, send the car into the river with Miss Martin's body inside and pass off her lamentable death as a traffic accident?"

"The idea seemed perfect at the time. Wertheim sent his employer and his prospective customers packing back to La Jolla Club, where they were to establish their alibi. He himself managed the manipulation of the accident, dressing Miss Martin in her street clothes. Bidault probably learned of the tragedy from Wertheim."

WHAT happened afterward is open to transparent conjecture. Armed with this deadly information, Barney Bidault confronted Carl Prater late one night in his office. He was also armed with his wife's small automatic pistol. He had borrowed the pistol with the pretext that he needed it for protection on a trip.

"Barney had been quick to see his opportunity to freeze Prater out of his highly successful company. With threat of exposure and threat of the little pistol, he extracted a complete confession from Carl Prater. He left Prater with the adjuration that the confession would be returned—if Prater assigned his shares of stock for a ridiculously low figure and abandoned his office as president."

"But he reckoned without reprisal. He was followed home, attacked from behind on his wife's own threshold and struck down. The little gun was taken from his person and used to murder him. That was why the bullet appeared to have been fired from the floor—actually Bidault was lying on the floor, and the bullet was fired downward at an angle through his mouth and through his brain."

"The killer left the pistol behind but took the confession from Bidault's pocket. Naturally—" "I didn't do it!" We all jumped. Carl Prater had screamed.

President Truman Offers To Share His Mail

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, May 10 — Handsome Senator Burnet Rhet Maybank of South Carolina was attending a White House conference the other day on price controls, inflation and defense mobilization. Some of the price-control measures were not too popular with his constituents and Senator Maybank remarked:

"Mr. President, I am getting an awful lot of letters expressing views of this. Would you like to look them over?"

Mr. Truman replied that he, too, had received hundreds of letters and countered by asking Maybank if he would like to have him, Truman, send his letters to Maybank.

"Send me any letters you want, to, Mr. President," replied the senator from South Carolina, "but for God's sake, don't write me any!"

No Peace — The Indian ambassador to China, Sardar Pannikar, has called Prime Minister Nehru of India an important message advising that there is no chance of peace with the Chinese.

His cable is significant because it was Ambassador Pannikar who first warned the United States and the UN that Chinese troops were going to intervene in Korea. This warning was made in early September, and although MacArthur now says he got no warning from anyone, Pannikar's warning was not only sent him by the state department but was published in this column on Sept. 17.

What is important to remember now, however, is that during December and January Ambassador Pannikar favored conciliation toward the Chinese, felt there was a chance for a military truce.

Now he has reversed himself, advises that China has no intention whatever of negotiating peace and the United Nations might just as well get tough.

Lively Publisher — Copyreaders of the New Orleans Times-Picayune are in for trouble. They may have to censor Hedda Hopper's Hollywood column in the future.

The Times-Picayune, now facing a justice department antitrust suit, has claimed that publisher Leonard Nicholson is too ill to testify. Justice department lawyers countered that Mr. Nicholson was well enough to attend the American Newspaper Publishers' convention at the Waldorf in New York, but Judge Earl Christenberry ruled that Nicholson would only have to answer written questions, not appear in court personally.

Next day, the Times-Picayune carried a story recounting the court argument and pointing out that its publisher was too ill to testify. But on an inside column of the same paper, Hedda Hopper indicated that publisher Nicholson was quite a gay blade. She told how he attended a party in the New York dressing room of Gertrude Lawrence, starting in "The King and I," along with Kent Cooper, Mrs. Robert McCormick and John Horne of the Rocky Mount, N. C., Telegram.

Justice department attorneys feel that if the Times-Picayune publisher was able to attend a theatrical party, he is well enough to appear in court. But they are wondering what Publisher Nicholson is saying to his copyreaders who failed to censor Hedda Hopper's column.

War Criminal — The U. S. immigration office at Los Angeles has been holding closed hearings regarding one of the most notorious war criminals who so far has escaped punishment. He is Andre Artukovitch, minister of interior and in charge of the police for Hitler's puppet government at the time the Nazis occupied Yugoslavia.

For some strange reason, so far unexplained, Artukovitch managed to enter the United States and has been living near Los Angeles, where he is working with his brother, John M. Artukovitch, a contractor.

Why he has been allowed to stay here remains a mystery. For some years, the Yugoslav government has been trying to find him, since, under him, one million Serbs and Jews were killed.

MacArthur and Central Intelligence — Here are the facts about the President's charge that MacArthur would not let Central Intelligence operate in the Korean and Japanese theater — a charge that MacArthur described as "tommyrot."

Actually Central Intelligence did have two agents in Japan, but MacArthur's intelligence chief, Maj. Gen. Charles Willoughby, now relieved, would not let them operate except under his control. Their movements were restricted and they could not collect their own information. All they could do was evaluate information collected by Gen. Willoughby's agents. MacArthur upheld Willoughby on this.

Later, when Gen. Bedell Smith took over Central Intelligence, he asked Gen. MacArthur to give Central Intelligence free rein, offered to appoint a man who would be entirely acceptable to MacArthur. This was refused. Later Smith flew to Tokyo to persuade MacArthur personally, and it was after this — in January — that Central Intelligence finally was given free rein. This was after the disastrous November-December Korean retreat in which MacArthur's intelligence appeared to have been so wrong.

Struggle For Oil — The British government has accused the United States of double-crossing it in Iran by trying to take over the British government-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil company. Representatives of three American oil companies have secretly approached the Iranian government with offers to manage the Anglo-Iranian company now that it is being nationalized.

As a result, British Foreign Minister Morrison, furious, told U. S. Ambassador Walter Gifford in London that the United States seems to be playing both sides of the street. On one hand it urges the British to accept Iran's decision to nationalize oil. On the other hand, it passes word to American oil companies to try to operate the wells and freeze out the British.

Ambassador Gifford (he used to be head of American Telephone and Telegraph) replied that the U. S. government had nothing to do with any secret negotiations by American oil companies; on the contrary, tried to discourage any such underhanded trick.

MacArthur's Airplane — MacArthur's airplane, the Bataan, was returned to the air force three days after the air force had diplomatically suggested that it would like to have the plane returned to Tokyo where it is supposed to be based for the use of the new Tokyo commander, Lt. Gen. Matt Ridgway.

The air force made the suggestion to Col. Anthony Story, the air force pilot who has been attached to MacArthur, and who has been flying him back and forth between Washington, New York, Tennessee and other points. The plane costs $225 an hour to operate.

St. Louis is one of five American cities having two major league baseball teams.

The remains of an earthen fort a mystery to archeologists, is in Missouri's Van Meter state park in Saline county.

Looking Backward

Forty Years Ago

C. W. McAninch, former presiding judge of the Pettis county court, purchased fifty head of good steers from J. H. Kroencke, south of Mora, and shipped them to his farm in the Hughesville vicinity.

E. R. Blair and son, Ralph, have a large force of workmen at McAllister Springs, just north of Houstonia, improving the cottages and other buildings at that summer resort. A swimming pool is being constructed of concrete.

Sedalia's monthly stock sales are attracting offering from throughout Central Missouri and for the next sale, May 17, twelve head of mules have been consigned from Versailles.

Judge H. B. Shain, C. C. Kelly, Judge John D. Bohling, C. C. Lawson, George Anamosa and A. L. Shortridge delivered addresses in various parts of the country Wednesday night in the interest of establishing rock roads.

Kansas City's new Starlight Theater in Swope Park is expected to be as big an attraction in western Missouri as is St. Louis' famed municipal opera in eastern Missouri.

The interior height of Abbey Church in Conception Junction, Mo., is 56 feet.

Forest Park, St. Louis, is the second largest municipal park in the nation.

Meramec Spring is approximately the seventh largest spring in Missouri.

One Sad Aspect of the MacArthur Affair

POWER RESERVE

Today . . . Right Now . . . Missouri Public Service Company has reserves of electric power ready for instant use.

This reserve, or surplus, of electric power is that over and above the amount needed to power the appliances, lights and motors of our customers in this area. Today this reserve is here, right now. Tomorrow, it will be even greater as we build for your future.

There is no power shortage in this area. There has always been a reserve of untapped energy. A surplus. A power reserve. And we intend to keep a power reserve always.

We are continually increasing the amount of electricity available for use in this area.

There is no power shortage today.

As for the future, now near completion is a gigantic construction program which guarantees facilities to meet all the power requirements of our customers up to the year 1960 and beyond.

And our customers include seven Rural Electric Cooperatives whose power needs we have always met and whose power needs and requirements we will always meet.

For the Missouri Public Service Company is the source of virtually all electric power which these seven REA cooperatives in turn sell to their customers at retail rates.

We have never refused service to anyone because of lack of power. We will never refuse service to anyone because of lack of power.

On that you can depend.

13 Bengals Entered In State Track Meet

Coach Bob Karnes will take 13 members of his Smith-Cotton Tiger track squad, champions of the Central Missouri Conference, to Columbia Friday and Saturday to participate in the class A state track meet at Rollins Field.

The Bengals suffered a severe blow in the broad-jump, hurdles, 880-yard relay when Don Pummill sprained his right ankle, putting him on crutches and out for the remainder of the season. Crosby Brown has a pulled muscle and he is also on the shelf for the season.

Placed In State In 1941
The last Smith-Cotton team to place in the state was the 1941 squad, which ranked sixth. The 1941 crew also won the conference title.

Smith-Cotton has won their last six cinder outings to date, defeating the best teams in central Missouri and all conference squads. Making the trip will be Delbert "Whitey" Bryant, Floyd Burton, Don Decker, Jim Dent, Herb Ford, Warren Keene, Bill McCrary, Bill Morgan, Chester O'Bannon, Ralph "Skip" Schulz, Bob Shawver, Richard Stephens, and J. D. Schlobohm.

Bryant and Ford will put the shot. Bryant is the shot ace; his best mark this year being 47-feet-1.

Schulz and Dent will do the pole-vaulting for S-C. Schulz cleared the cane at 10-feet-1, his top height.

Burton will be the only Tiger entrant in the high and low hurdles, since Pummill's injury. Karnes has entered McCrary and Shawver in the 100-yard dash. Shawver clipped off the century in 10.2 seconds to take second in the conference meet.

Keene Looks Outstanding
Warren Keene looks like the outstanding Tiger entrant in the meet. His mile-run was clocked at 4:46 in the conference carnival which was held in a driving rain. J. D. Schlobohm will be Keene's running mate.

Ford will be shooting for all-state honors in the discus. His best throw this year is 131-feet-7, 135-feet is the required mark to be placed on the all state squad. Shawver is the other S-C contestant in this event.

Decker and Shawver will carry the S-C banner in the high-jump. Decker has the better height of the two this year, clearing 5-feet-10.

McCrary and Bryant will handle the broad-jumping duties. The Tigers are considered strong in this event. McCrary leaped over 21-feet in practice but 20-feet-7 is his best meet mark.

Coach Karnes has entered Shawver, Burton and McCrary on the 880-yard relay team but has not found a replacement for Pummill although Bryant is considered a probability. The relay team was clocked at 1:36.5 in their best timing.

O'Bannon and Morgan will be the S-C athletes in the 440-yard dash. O'Bannon is the new conference champ and his best time is 54.4 seconds.

Stephens, Keene and O'Bannon are entered as half-milers. Keene's best time is 2:07 while Stephens ran the distance in 2:08.

220-yard dash men will be Shawver, Bryant and O'Bannon. The mile relay team is uncertain.

Preliminaries will be held Friday and all finals will be run-off Saturday.

Oklahoma Youth Hurls Perfect Baseball Game In Class C Tournament

PRYOR, Okla., May 10—(P)—Right-handed Perry Anderson, 16, pitched a perfect baseball game Wednesday as Spring Hill ousted Big Cabin from the state class C championship quarterfinals, 2-0.

No man reached first base off the youngster who struck out 19 and walked none. Rival hurler J. T. Stansbury was touched for six hits and only one earned run himself. The game was reeled off in an hour and 40 minutes.

Chief's Home Opener With Boonville Lions Washed Out by Rain

The scheduled game Wednesday night at Liberty Park between the Sedalia Chiefs and the Boonville Lions, both of the Central Missouri Ban Johnson League was postponed due to rain. This was the second game the two clubs have had postponed. The Chiefs were scheduled to play at Boonville Sunday night but cold weather caused that game to be canceled.

Bob Brown was ready to go to the mound for the locals with Dave Johnson, and John Means prepared for three inning stints. Sunday the Chiefs will go to Unionville and Brookfield for a day-night doubleheader.

Hubbard Nine Holds First Squad Tilt

The Hubbard high school baseball team played its first inter-squad game of the season yesterday, Tuesday, May 8th.

In the fifth inning of the contest the Blues beat the Clowns 9-4.

George Rucker, a right hander, pitched four innings, giving up only four hits to receive credit for the game. He was relieved in the fifth inning by Thomas Wyatt, another right hand prospect.

Irving Is Relieved
John Irving, who started for the Clowns, showed good form in the first two innings but was hit hard in the next innings and was relieved by Howard Herndon.

Carl Whitney, hard hitting catcher of the Blues, hit a home run deep into right-center field.

Addison Williams, Alvin Jones and Finis Estes were outstanding in the outfield, while William Everage, Everett Payne and Cecil Bratton played well in the infield.

Alvin Jones, Jr., one of the better infield prospects, was absent because of death in his family. Lonnie Banks, a freshman left hand pitching prospect, was also absent from the game.

Akins Pleased With Team
Ralph Lee and Charles Moten were the umpires of the game which was watched by the entire student body during the activity period. Coach Akins, coaching at third base during the game, has great hopes for a victory Thursday.

The Tigers will travel to Dalton Thursday for their first game of the season. This is the second season for the Tigers. Last year was the first time in the history of Hubbard school that baseball was played.

Moose Team Practice Scheduled For 5 p. m.
The Sedalia Moose club baseball team will hold practice at 5:00 p. m. today on the Liberty Park diamond, providing the diamond is dry enough by this evening. A call for additional players has been made by the Moose to fill up the squad.

Several positions remain open and players have an opportunity to be assigned to them.

Thursday night, May 17, the Moose play the Florida Cubans at Liberty park.

Giants Smear Cards, 17-3

NEW YORK, May 10—(P)—The awakened New York Giants rocked a makeshift St. Louis team with 21 hits Wednesday in a 17-3 romp that tied the major league run and hit total for the season.

Ray Noble, the Cuban catcher, hit two homers and Bobby Thomson one off the parade of Cardinal throwers. Al Dark added a double, triple and two singles. Dark, Noble and Whitey Lockman each had four hits.

Sal Maglie, who usually skirts disaster with slim one-run margins, rode home easy with his third straight win. The curveballing right-hander lost his first two 1951 starts.

Thomson Connects Latest
Everybody hit, although Thomson waited until the last time up to hammer the 21st Giant hit, his fifth homer. The New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox previously scored 17 runs this year and the Yanks also collected 21 hits in a rout of the St. Louis Browns.

With eight Cards bedded by the flu, manager Marty Marion fielded a "rinkydink" lineup. An all-rookie infield and Stan Musial in center field resulted. Max Lanier had nothing and was dispatched in short order. Ted Wilks, Ery Dusak and Al Brazle didn't do much better.

Musial left the game in the fourth, suffering from a heavy cold. Enos Slaughter also retired in the fifth. In all, St. Louis had but five hits off Maglie, including a homer by bespectacled Don Richmond.

Dodgers Shade Cubs
Capable relief pitching by Clyde King helped Brooklyn shade Chicago, 5-4. Cal Abrams, fighting for the left field job, snapped a 2-2 tie with a two-run double in the sixth. King replaced Chris Van Cuyk in the second.

Johnny Schmitz, an old Dodger jinx, was routed in the second

Some Have No Fear of The 'Duster'

Slaughter And Eddie Stanky Have 'Bitten Dust' Often

By Joe Reichler

NEW YORK, May 10—(AP)—Is it true what they say about the duster pitch? Does it really endanger the life and limb of the batter? Should the user of this so-called lethal missile be punished? In recent days a great hue and cry has been raised because of much "high and close" pitching that has batters going up and down alike yo-yos. It came to a head when Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson laid down a bunt along the first base-line and deliberately bumped Sal Maglie after the Giant pitcher had made him hit the dirt.

The questions were put to Enos Slaughter of the St. Louis Cardinals and Eddie Stanky of the Giants, two scrappers from the word "go," who probably have been forced to "bite the dust" oftener than any of their contemporaries.

"There's nothing wrong with the duster," is Slaughter's surprising reply. "That's part of baseball. Why outlaw it? Just because a few panty-waisted cry-babies are afraid they might get their uniforms dirty?"

"If these little Lord Fauntleroy's think there is a lot of bean-ball pitchers around today, they should have been playing around 10-15 years ago. Then they'd realize some dusters. Guys like Dizzy Dean, Burleigh Grimes and Freddy Fitzsimmons would think nothing of sticking one in your ear. Pitchers are gentlemen today compared to those of the '30s."

"Dusters never bothered me. I realize the pitcher is just trying to prevent me from taking a toe-hold at the plate. Why should I blame him when I know that I would do the same thing if I were in his place? Heck, if I were a pitcher and I had two strikes and no balls on a longball hitter, you bet your life that next one is going to sit him right on his pants."

Stanky, echoed Slaughter. The spunky little second sacker, who said the number of times he's been low-bridged runs into the "millions," said he never once challenged a pitcher over the use of the duster.

"That's his stock in trade," said Stanky. "Every good pitcher resorts to that pitch every so often. Otherwise the batter would be running down his neck."

Cardinals 'Really Shot' by the Flu

NEW YORK, May 10—(AP)—The physician treating St. Louis' flurried Cardinals said today four key players would be out of the lineup at least a week and would be "extremely weak" for two or three weeks longer.

"The team is really shot," said Dr. Allen D. Tanney, who treats all major league baseball players stopping at the Commodore hotel. "It's a real blow to Marty Marion (Cards' manager)."

Tanney listed these as "very sick" men: Outfielder Stan Musial, coach Mike Ryba and pitchers Howie Pollet, Harry Brecheen and George Minger.

"I know I'll have to keep Pollet, Minger and Ryba here and possibly Musial and Brecheen when the team leaves tonight for Cincinnati," the doctor said.

"They'll stay here for a few days and then go back to St. Louis for a rest."

Other ailing members are getting along better and won't be confined, the doctor said. They are infielders Rocky Nelson and Red Schoendienst, catcher Bill Sarni and trainer Doc Weaver.

Sarni donned a uniform against the New York Giants yesterday. Schoendienst, however, also is hobbled by a sprained ankle.

Murphy Adds 53rd Knockout

CHICAGO, May 10—(AP)—Irish Bob Murphy has added the 53rd knockout notch to his sensational ring record and has won the right to test the iron jaw of durable Jake La Motta, who has been beaten but never floored.

LaMotta, who lost his middleweight crown to Sugar Ray Robinson on Feb. 14, will make his first start as a light heavyweight contender against the flailing Murphy in New York's Yankee stadium June 27.

Murphy gained the big money shot last night by bruising and cutting down Banny Nardico of in a scheduled 10 rounder at Chicago stadium. Only 3,904 spectators showed up for the nationally televised and broadcast Tampa, Fla., for a spectacular brawl and the gate netted a fourth round technical knockout for the name mere $9,676.

Home Reported Leased by MacArthur

This is Shennemere, or Hoyt House, on Contentment Island, off the Atlantic coast near Darien, Conn., which the Stamford, Conn., Advocate said that General Douglas MacArthur has leased for two years. The Advocate said that the general, his wife and son would take up residence in the large mansion which has a nine-acre tract of land. Col. Charles Lindberg and his family live on the same island. The island is connected to the Connecticut mainland by a roadway leading directly to U. S. Highway No. 1—the old New York to Boston Post Road. (AP Wirephoto)

Poppy Sales to be On May 25-26

The idea of the poppy as a memorial flower for World War dead was inspired by the blooming wild poppies "between the crosses row and row" in the battle cemeteries of World War I. The idea spread spontaneously throughout the English speaking world. The poppies which are worn in the United States are crepe paper replicas of these wild poppies, which are made by the veterans in hospital and convalescent workrooms throughout the country.

These poppies will be sold on the streets on May 25 and 26 by members of the American Legion auxiliary.

Junior-Senior Banquet Held

The Junior-Senior banquet was held at the school auditorium Friday night in Knob Noster. The auditorium was decorated in the senior colors, blue and white. Large baskets of purple and white lilies and tulips were used. At one end of the auditorium was a fish pond with white rocks and green spirea.

The appearance of the "Stork Club" was carried out throughout the room. "Stork Club," was spelled in silver letters and there were blue and white streamers and colored balloons. A canopy extended from the door to the street and a lighted "Stork Club" sign was in the yard. Richard Skidmore was doorman. Billy Richeson head waiter and Gloria Howerton, check girl. Marlene Austin and Donna Ann Wampler were waitresses. Waiters were Harlan Gail Suiter, and Wayne Miller.

Popular music was played preceding and during the banquet by Wilma Lyle.

The following program was presented: prayer, the Rev. M. F. Allen; welcome, Esther Koch; acceptance, Robert Dawes; toast, Miss Dorothy Ficht, sponsor of the junior class; "Out of School Life Into Life's School," address superintendent A. C. Teague; presentation, Bill Parrott and acceptance, James Logsdon.

The bluffs overhanging U. S. Highway 71 north of Noel, Mo., are a highlight in a scenic area. Grant City is the seat of Worth county, Missouri.

The dinner was prepared by the women of the PTA. The remainder of the evening was spent dancing.

The modern courthouse at Maysville, Mo., is one of the most admired structures in the region.

Hobo Rapidly Disappearing In America

By Saul Pett
(For Hal Boyle)

NEY YORK—(P)—Because of increasing paternalism in government and the high cost of living, the American hobo is rapidly becoming extinct.

"If this keeps up, there won't be one left in 20 years," says Ben Benson, four-time king of the hoboes. "Don't," he warns, "go putting quotes around my title because it's official, damn it."

Ben is five feet tall, weighs 110 pounds, uses a hearing aid and talks faster than a used car salesman. In the last 50 years of bumming, he has covered more than 500,000 miles, he estimates. "Been on the road since I was 17," he says. "Never seen anything like it. Not one-tenth the boys travelling nowadays there was 10, 15 years ago."

"Right here in New York, out of 10,000 men on the Bowers, maybe 6,000 used to be travelling bums, now they're on relief or old age pensions. Can't travel. Got to show permanent residence to get those checks."

Migratory workers, Ben reports, don't get the work they used to around harvest time because of the increasing mechanization of farms. Besides, freight trains operate more efficiently, with fewer stops for block signals. Diesel engines pick up speed faster than the old locomotives and it's harder for a hobo to jump a freight.

Such conditions are converting many bums into "rubber tramps"—hitch-hikers.

"Been doing a lot of that myself lately," Ben says. "More comfortable. Meet a better class of people, who slip you a buck or a meal now and then. Also, much cleaner than the hot shots (fast freights)."

Food Now Problem
"The high cost of living is changing everything. I used to specialize as a house cat. Sure, I ate in jungles now and then but most of the time I bummed at the back doors of houses. In the old days, when food was cheap, they wouldn't turn you away."

"Now, they don't have enough food for themselves. Why even the Salvation Army and other missions don't put up the feed the way they used to."

The character of American hoboes is changing, too. They used to be more intelligent, Ben reports, more interested in the working man, if not interested in working themselves.

"Now everybody is afraid of being called a Communist," he says. "Last summer, out in Colorado, a farmer asked me if I wanted a short job. How much? I says, Dollar a day, he says. Nothing doing, I says. I want three dollars a day, good food and a place to sleep, not in the barn next to the cows. He called me a Red."

Ben was elected to his fourth term as king of the hoboes at a convention last year in Britt, Ia. He is 67.

"I positively won't run for a fifth term," he insists. "I want to get out of the hobo movement. Want to get into the youth movement."

Increase In Debits In The Sedalia Banks

According to the Monthly Review of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis:

General business during March, debits to deposit accounts at banks in Sedalia aggregated $11,734,000, and were 10 per cent more than those for the same month last year. These debit figures represent for the most part checks against depositors' accounts in payment of goods, services, and debts, and are considered a good indicator of general business activity.

Memorial to C. C. Hubbard

Memorial services honoring the late Professor C. C. Hubbard, former principal of the C. C. Hubbard high and the Lincoln grade schools, who died May 23, 1947, will be held on Sunday afternoon, May 13. The program is to be in the auditorium of the high school, starting at 3:00 o'clock.

Dr. Sherman D. Scruggs, president of the Lincoln university, Jefferson City and Dr. Heber U. Hunt, superintendent of schools in Sedalia, will be the principal speakers on the program. Others who will speak briefly on the life of Professor Hubbard will be Dr. A. R. Maddox, Sedalia physician and surgeon and Rev. J. Y. Jackson of the Burns Chapel Free Will Baptist church.

Prof. Hubbard well known throughout the state as an educational, religious, fraternal and civic leader. He came to Sedalia in 1916 as principal of the Negro school in Sedalia and served until shortly before his illness and death in 1947. In 1916 Prof. Hubbard was president of the Missouri State Association of Negro Teachers and active in the organization of this association.

For many years he served on the board of curators of Lincoln university and an active leader among his people throughout the state.

The program committee has announced an extensive program for the afternoon with the combined choirs of Sedalia and the Lincoln university band furnishing the music.

The Graduate Chapter of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity, of which he was a member, has been invited to attend the service in a body. Many leading teachers of Negro schools in Missouri have indicated their intentions to come to Sedalia for the services.

So much has Prof. Hubbard done for his people in Sedalia that Hubbard high school was named for him as was the Hubbard city park.

New Fabric in Men's Suits

By Sam Dawson

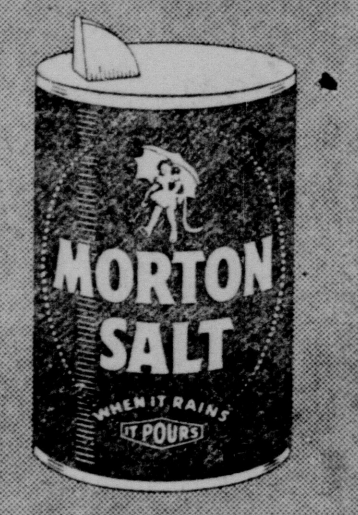

NEW YORK, May 10—(P)—A new men's suiting will hit the retail stores by the first of the month — marking the wedding of fine apparel wool with DuPont's new synthetic fiber daaron. Remarkable claims are made for the new summer suits.

As significant, however, is the further challenge to the long-time supremacy of all-wool, the natural fiber has been taking it from all sides since the price of wool soared to record highs. Many makers of men's suits say they will hold the line fast for all-wool suits, rejecting both the suitings made from all-synthetic fibers and those made from the blends of the two.

But one of their leaders, Meyer Kestnbaum, president of Hart,

Schaffner & Marx, Chicago, says: "You can't stand in the way of scientific development. There is a positive contribution to clothing of them to the public by June in some of these fabrics and in their combinations with wool." His firm has made the new suits and will offer some 4,000 a positive contribution to the public by June at $79.50.

Mother's Day Dessert Banquet

Bouquet Ice Cream Cake, with pink marshmallow frosting, is dessert treat for Mother's Day.

By Gaynor Maddox
NEA Staff Writer

How's this colorful idea for the cake young daughter serves as a gala surprise on Mother's day—a pink layer cake topped with alternating petals of strawberry and vanilla ice cream. To complete the ice cream flower, a ball of vanilla sprinkled with coconut is placed in the center. To carry out the nosegay picture, there is a base of lace paper doilies and a ribbon bow.

Nothing difficult about this. Use a prepared white cake mix and buy the ice cream in bulk. The pink marshmallow frosting recipe is very easy to make.

Bouquet Ice Cream Cake
One package prepared white cake mix, few drops red coloring, 1 pint strawberry ice cream, bulk, 1 pint vanilla ice cream, bulk, 1 recipe pink marshmallow frosting, 1/4 cup yellow-tinted coconut (shredded).

Prepare cake according to package directions, adding coloring to liquid. Bake cake in two 8-inch pans covered with cookie sheets to preserve pink color. Place one layer on round plate with doily edging under plate. Cover with icing and arrange second layer on top. Ice sides only, with pink frosting. Scoop ice cream from container with large oval tablespoon to form petal shapes. Place petals on ice cream freezer tray and replace in refrigerator until ready to use. To serve, cover top of cake with alternate strawberry and vanilla ice cream petals. Sprinkle coconut on center to give pollen effect or else roll scoop of vanilla ice cream in coconut and place in center.

Pink Marshmallow Frosting
Six marshmallows, six tablespoons milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons butter, few drops red food coloring, 1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring, 2 1/4 cups confectioners' sugar.

Combine marshmallows, milk and salt in top of double boiler; heat over hot water until marshmallows are melted. Add butter, remove from heat and cool. Add

Together They Spell Mother

DOWNY LEMON COCONUT CUPCAKES spell out "Mother." Fresh strawberries add color and zest.

By Gaynor Maddox
NEA Staff Writer

Turn the tables on Mom and give her a party on Mother's Day, May 13th. Use coconut cupcakes frosted all over with a tart lemon frosting. Serve with fresh strawberries and cream.

For ease and speed of preparation make these downy-textured cupcakes with an instant cake mix. For convenience, bake in paper baking cups (set in muffin pans) to eliminate scrubbing cupcake pans.

On each of six of them, make one letter of the word MOTHER with little silver and green candies, then arrange alphabetical cakes in order to spell out their salutation.

Downy Coconut Cupcakes (Makes 18 cupcakes)

One package white cake mix, 3/4 cup shredded coconut, cut, 2 egg yolks, unbeaten, 1/2 cup milk and 2/3 cup milk, lemon frosting.

Turn cake mix into bowl. Add coconut and mix well. Then add egg yolks and 1/2 cup of the milk. Blend, then beat 2 minutes. Add remaining 2/3 cup milk. Blend, then beat 1 minute longer. (Beat vigorously by hand or at a low speed of electric mixer.) Turn batter into paper baking cups (set in muffin pans), filling cups only 1/2 full. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Cool. Prepare lemon frosting. Spread on tops and sides of cupcakes.

Lemon Frosting
Cream together 1/2 cup butter or fortified margarine and 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind. Combine 4 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Add part of sugar mixture to creamed butter, blending after each addition. Then add remaining sugar, alternately with about 6 tablespoons lemon juice, until of right consistency to spread. Beat thoroughly after each addition. NOTE: If desired, frost only tops of cupcakes, using six tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 3 cups sifted confectioners' sugar, dash of salt and about 1/4 cup lemon juice.

MENU
BREAKFAST: Baked apples, soft-cooked eggs, enriched toast, butter or fortified margarine, marmalade, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Casserole of kidney beans and onions, rye bread, butter or fortified margarine, fruit cup, tea, milk.

DINNER: Beef, veal and pork loaf, mushroom gravy, baked potatoes, buttered asparagus,

Sweet Recipe for Beauty

To cut down on sugar and sweets and thus keep her weight under control, this young woman substitutes saccharin, which has no food value, for sugar in her daily diet. She learns how to use saccharin (above) for making tempting desserts. At lunch in restaurant (upper right) she drops saccharin tablets into coffee as sweetener. Proudly, she serves non-fattening lemon snowdrift (lower right) which she made herself with saccharin in recipe.

Advancement to William G. Rose

William G. Rose, son of John H. Rose, 519 West Third, has been advanced in rate to Radioman Third Class (RM3) U. S. Navy. Men are selected for advancement by competing in fleet-wide examinations given to men who are recommended by their senior officers. To receive such recommendations, a man must show leadership, ability and a complete knowledge of the responsibilities imposed by the rating. At present he is serving aboard the destroyer U. S. S. John W. Thomason (DD-760) in Korean waters. Kirkville, Mo., was named for Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kirk, who supposedly gave the county commissioners a turkey dinner to name the town for them. Rockport was platted in 1851 as the seat of Atchison county to succeed Linden. Lee's Summit, Mo., was named for Dr. Pleasant Lea, but a misspelled sign on its first rail depot, a boxcar, was never corrected.

Trend For One Story Farm House

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(P)—Mid-west farm families want a one story house with basement, 5 to 7 rooms, a sloping roof and porches. That's the consensus of a survey of 900 farm families in South

Dakota, Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio and Wisconsin. The report, published by the Iowa agricultural experiment station, Ames, Ia., also found: Only one family in four is now living in a one-story house, but two-thirds prefer such a house. The majority of families who do like a second story request one or more bedrooms on the first floor. Among those who prefer a two-story house, 75 per cent want the bathroom downstairs if there is no lavatory there. Half the families want both a dining room and a space for serving meals in the kitchen. Three-fourths of the families would like to have a separate dining room. The report shows families need houses that provide good work space and storage to suit their particular farm activities and enterprises. As examples, about 50 per cent of the families questioned prepare eggs for market in the house. Fifty per cent have milk pails, milk strainers or meat saws to store in the house. About 75 per cent want some space provided in the house for farm business. Most think a desk adequate for this and do not want a separate room. Savannah, Mo., seat of Andrew county, was named for Savannah, Ga.

The Doctor Says—

Rh Factor is Considered In Relation to Childbirth

Today a prospective mother generally has a blood test made to determine whether her blood is Rh negative or Rh positive. The same test is often carried out on the father as well. This is one of several tests to find out what blood group a person belongs to, but it is particularly important in pregnancy because it may effect the health of the offspring.

This is not a simple thing to explain, partly because there are subgroups of the Rh factor, as it is called. Many things will have to be left out of this discussion. In brief, however, 87 per cent of the people have an obscure substance in their blood which classify them as being Rh positive. The other 13 per cent are called Rh negative and sometimes such persons become sensitive to Rh positive blood, bringing up possible dangers in connection with pregnancy or blood transfusion. If a woman has Rh negative blood and becomes pregnant with an Rh positive child because the father is Rh positive, the child may be born with a disease known as erythroblastosis fetalis. However this does not always occur. The first child, and often later ones, are usually healthy unless the mother has previously received blood transfusions with Rh positive blood. Even this is becoming more rare because of greater care in this matter. Furthermore, only about one woman in 25 or 50 with Rh negative blood and an Rh positive husband becomes sensitive and gives birth to a baby with erythroblastosis.

It should be pointed out also that even if a child does have erythroblastosis, much can be done by giving blood transfusions so that a high proportion can be saved.

In A Nutshell

It may be useful to summarize the situation:

If both parents are Rh positive there is little to worry about. If both are Rh negative there is nothing to worry about.

If the mother is Rh positive and the father Rh negative there is nothing to worry over.

If the mother is Rh negative and the father Rh positive, occasional trouble can be anticipated but this is by no means inevitable.

Wife Can Keep Her Job, But There's a Batch of IFs

So you're going to keep your job—at least for a while—after marriage. Good for you—if . . . You don't expect your husband to think you're wonderful for helping earn the living. They never do, you know. I get many letters from women who are hurt and angry because their husbands show no appreciation for the fact that the wife helps earn the family income. But never yet have I had a letter from a wife who said her husband was deeply grateful for the fact that she carried part of the financial load. . . . You never start thinking in terms of "my money." If you are going to work what you earn should be regarded as "our money"—just as your husband's pay check is labelled "ours." . . . You don't try to hold on to a job that is too hard for you, or because of ambition, accept a promotion that means your job must always come first. With a woman, marriage has to come first or in time all she will have is career. He Musn't Feel Cheated You are sure your husband is not the kind of man who will feel cheated by having a working wife. If you think your working will be hard on his ego, don't work. You can never make it up to him, no matter how tactful you try to be. . . . You are physically strong enough and emotionally calm enough to be able to handle two jobs without becoming hard to live with. You won't be easy to live with, if you are pushing yourself beyond your strength. . . . You realize from the start that even though you work as long hours as your husband at your outside job, the house is your responsibility. This is true regardless of how willing your husband is to "help" with the housework. . . . You never forget that it is all right for a man to have a "hard day at the office" but not for a woman. A woman who starts talking about her tough day at the office loses a lot of her femininity. Nor can she bring home worries from the office. All she can bring home is some amusing highlight of the day and the impression that her job is a breeze. Taum Sauk Mountain's elevation of 1,772 feet above sea level makes it the highest point in Missouri.
